ELLIS F. DAVIS DISCUSSES THE OUT- STANDING ADVANTAGES OF AGRICUL- TURAL POSSIBILITIES OF COUNTY

Diversity of Soil and Co-Operative Marketing, He Explains Before Chamber of Commerce, Should Bring Immense Wealth to Citizens Here

REV. DR. ANDREWS TALKS ON SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY

While a genuine old-fashioned turkey dinner is rather hard to come by in this section of the county, as was advertised and served at Tuesday evening's Chamber of Commerce meeting—the splendid talks of Ellis F. Davis of Kissimmee, on the agricultural possibilities of the county, and of Rev. Dr. Andrews, the new pastor of the Methodist church here, on Southern hospitality, were quite absorbing, and met with very hearty response on the part of probably some 50 diners as each of the speakers filled his place on the program.

From the standpoint of the organization's continued success and growth, and the interest the business and civic life of the city is taking in it, the evening's meeting as a whole was all the members and officers could wish for. The talks or speeches of Mr. Davis and Rev. Dr. Andrews were equally fulfilling in the same respect. Mr. Davis, as was announced in last week's issue of The Tribune, has long since been recognized as an authority on Florida agricultural products—of course including Florida fruits and truck, and his pertinent discussion in this respect was both enlightening and inspiring.

He began by saying that the bonded debt of a city or a county or both demands some sort of production to meet the debt, else bankruptcy must follow. He could see no reason for the latter due to the unusual possibilities of producing such diversity of fruits and vegetables and other things as can be produced profitably in Osceola county.

As the writer well knows and wrote in a series of articles in the Florida Grower some years ago, as well as in the New York Farmer, Mr. Davis drew a pertinent picture of the possibilities agriculturally of Osceola county—its adaptability to the growing of strawberries, tomatoes, beans, oranges and other winter vegetables and fruits.

Indeed, Osceola county enjoys a diversity of soil suited to almost anything grown in any other section of sub-tropical Florida. He brought his picture of visible evidence by pointing to the fortunes now being reaped through the growing of beans at Center Hill; strawberries at Plant City; oranges from the Indian river section; tomatoes from the Redland district and potatoes from the Hastings section. With this county containing immense undeveloped acreage of lands awaiting the proper development and cultivation for each and all of these products the speaker recommended the establishment of a Truckers' Protective Marketing Association—cooperation so that larger quantities could be grown and shipped in such lots as to reduce freight rates, carry in better condition, and bring thereby better prices.

Nor did he stop with the few products mentioned above, he said onions, peppers, poultry and other so-called farming and trucking businesses could be carried on in the county with marked success and profit to the backs of the enterprisers. He urged the growing of cattle of higher strains, confined to smaller areas so that better pasturing could be provided. All of the above he said could be made possible by the proper investment and the protection of the capital invested. He brought out the point that the old-time methods were becoming inconsistent with the best interests of the people, because the range cattle and the timber are fast disappearing.

In concluding, still maintaining his open interest in the establishment of agricultural enterprise and development all over the county, Mr. Davis declared he had rather receive a fee of $250 for his services of incorporating capital than to make $500 in a proceeding to foreclose a mortgage on someone's home.

He also spoke impressively on the importance of capitalizing our climate. Rev. Andrews was heartily received and applauded as he went into the value of the delights of Southern hospitality—which he had received so bountifully since he had been in St. Cloud.

His remarks were such as to commend him to any audience and impress any number of people assembled in a worthy meeting.

YOUNG CONFIDENT

A. W. Young was a visitor in St. Cloud during the week, visiting his many friends in this section of the state. He is a candidate for the State Senate from District 33, and declared that he was confident of the Democratic nomination.

EVERYONE INTERESTED IN GOOD GOVERNMENT OUGHT TO BE

7:00 AND 7:30

Every friend of Pons Hathaway and member of the Hathaway Club for Governor is requested to meet at the Chamber of Commerce Monday evening between 7 and 7:30.

Speaking will be heard and discussions for a more intensive campaign will be launched. Other matters for the advancement of Mr. Hathaway's campaign throughout the county will be discussed.

TRIBUNE CONTEST DIRECTOR

HUDSON DE PRIEST

The Tribune is glad to reproduce the likeness of its popular contest editor and director, Mr. Hudson De Priest of New York City. Mr. De Priest is well known in St. Cloud, having conducted The Tribune's big campaign three years ago with conspicuous success. Since then, he has directed a number of notable campaigns in Greater New York City to which field he returns next week.

The Tribune believes that the time to advertise and stir things up is when business is dull. That is the explanation of the present extraordinary Gift Distribution, which has developed an amount of new business for the paper that is both surprising and pleasing to The Tribune Co.

We wish for our good friend, Mr. De Priest, even greater success in the future.

P. T. A. MEETS

The Parent Teachers Association met at the West Side school on Monday evening, after the usual business was completed the Sophomores gave a program consisting of four short sketches: "Polly Pats the Pepper in the Box," "I Can't Do a Thing With My Hair Since It's Washed," "Pat Answers the Advertisement," and "Courtin' Under Difficulties."

CITRUS GROWERS HELD MEETING YESTERDAY

A number of citrus growers of Osceola county met in the chamber of commerce Wednesday, together with several other persons of the county and state who are interested in perfecting the most workable marketing system that it is possible for a united effort to achieve.

The discussions were upon many subjects, with no conclusions reached but with the object of every grower of citrus fruits in the state getting together on one great scheme to properly market their products.

Those interested in such a plan expressed themselves as gratified at the interest taken in the meeting by the Osceola county growers and advanced the further hope that next season would find each grower to the state in better position calculated on a definite profit upon the sale of his oranges, grapefruit and tangerines.

HON. JOE SEARS WILL SPEAK AT BAND STAND

BEGINS AT 8:00 P. M. AND WILL GIVE ACCOUNT OF RECORD
AT WASHINGTON

After being the guest of friends at the Chamber of Commerce next Tuesday evening, Congressman Joe Sears will be escorted to the Tenth street band stand, where, at 8 o'clock, he will begin a speech, narrating and relating his achievements as congressman for the past 14 years, during which time he will bring out many points of interest to all concerning the workings of the lower house, and the part he has played as a member of that body during his incumbency in behalf of his district.

Those who heard Mr. Sears speak at Kissimmee will probably want to hear him again here, as he gave a very coherent account of the time he had put in for his constituents, and of the accomplishments that now stand in the public records to the credit of his efforts for the entire Fourth Congressional District.

The city officials have kindly consented to provide ample seating facilities for the crowds who wish to come out and hear the congressman the same as they have agreed for other candidates. This will make it more of an inducement.

RUTH BRYAN OWEN WILL SPEAK HERE THURS. MAY 3

OPPONENT OF JOE SEARS WILL OUTLINE HER POLICIES AT THE BAND STAND

Every Arrangement Made for Speaker and Crowds

Fitting arrangements have been made for Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen to speak in the Tenth street band stand at 8 o'clock Thursday evening May 3rd, and her host of friends in Osceola county are leaving nothing unturned with a view of making every provision for her comfort and for those who wish seats to hear her.

Mrs. Owen is the only opponent for the Democratic nomination against Joe Sears for congress and she herself is conducting a thorough canvass of the Fourth Florida Congressional District in which the two are running, propounding their policies and qualifications for the office. Mr. Sears is the present incumbent and has been for 14 years.

Mrs. Owen will be introduced by Mrs. E. S. Taylor of this city, and it is reasonably anticipated that a large number of citizens from all sections of Osceola county will come to St. Cloud for the occasion and that an equally liberal number of Mrs. Owen's friends in St. Cloud will be seated in the (Continued on Page Three)

OUTSTANDING PLAY BY THE HIGH SCHOOL JUNIORS AND SENIORS TO BE PRESENTED FRIDAY, APRIL 27

"Come Out Of The Kitchen" Has Been Developed Into a Master
By Artists of International Note

GORGEOUS SCENERY ALONE IS AN ECLIPSE

Famous Artists Produced Gorgeous Scenery for Stage

Artists from the Janet Walsman Studios, of St. Petersburg, have been busy the past week painting the stage scenery for the new St. Cloud high school auditorium, which will be used for the first time on Friday evening, April 27th, when the Junior-Senior class play, "Come Out of the Kitchen" will be presented.

It will be interesting to the people of Osceola county to learn that one of the artists, Mrs. Billy Clappitt (nee Miss Cornelia Morrison) is a graduate of the Osceola high school, Kissimmee, and will be remembered by a host of friends. She is also a graduate of the New School of Design, Boston, and for five years was on the staff of the Youth's Companion. At present she is teacher of Art in the Clifley Foundational school at St. Petersburg, where she makes her home with her husband and three children. She has just completed an illustration for a political article by Mrs. Henry Fawcett, to be published in a national magazine.

Mr. Jean Paleologue, who is assisting in the work, is an internationally known artist. He was born at Bucharest, Roumania, and speaks nine different languages. He is a graduate of the Beaux Arts School, Paris, and the South Kensington School of Art, London. For years he was cartoonist on the staff of the London edition of the New York Herald and Vanity Fair in London. More recently he was on the staff of the New York Morning Telegraph. Mr. Paleologue has traveled in many countries, and personally has been impressed most by Florida's wonderful schools and the intelligent way of training and developing the children's minds. He is very much impressed with the beauty of St. Cloud, and the comfort and accommodations found at a local hotel. Mr. Paleologue stated that he had dined at the Ritz in Paris but that he couldn't help but praise the excellent lunches served at the school lunch room.

The screen painted by these well-known artists is a lovely exterior scene of a landscape garden, depicting all of the charms of tropical Florida including a beautiful fountain, and the spirit of the woods is caught in the bust of the mythological god of the woods, Pan.

The people of St. Cloud and Kissimmee and vicinity will have an opportunity of seeing the work of these artists on next Friday evening, when the new scenery will be used for the first time, in the Junior-Senior class play, "Come Out of the Kitchen," a three act comedy, by A. E. Thomas. The annual plays presented by the Junior and Senior classes of the St. Cloud high school are always worth while, and those who attend are assured of a delightful evening's entertainment.

Annual High School Play To Be Given Friday Night

"Come Out of the Kitchen," a three act comedy by A. E. Thomas, will be presented by the Junior and Senior classes, Friday night, April 27 at eight o'clock in the high school auditorium.

The new stage scenery will be used for the first time.

The cast of characters is as follows:

Olivia Dangerfield (Alias Jane Ellen), Rose McElroy.
Elizabeth Dangerfield (Alias Araminta), Elizabeth Dunnham.

Mrs. Falkner (Tucker's Sister), Marguerite Williamson.
Cora Falkner (Her Daughter), Alpha Wood.

Amanda (Olivia's Black Mammy), Marguerite Donegan.
Burton Crane (From the North), Velfon Walters.

Paul Dangerfield (Alias Smithfield), Kenneth McGill.
Charles Dangerfield (Alias Brindleburg), Glenn Townsend.

Solon Tucker (Crane's Attorney and Guest), Cecil Outlaw.

Thomas Leffert (Statistical Poet), G. M. Moses, Jr.
Randolph Weeks (The Dangerfield's Agent), Tom Palmer.

Time: The present.
Place: The Dangerfield's Mansion in Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Dangerfield are abroad for Mr. Dangerfield's health. The fortune of the family is somewhat diminished; and it becomes necessary to rent the old place to a young Northern gentleman, Barton Crane. The servant who had been employed fail to appear, and the Dangerfield children have to take their places. Many amusing incidents follow. Crane discharges all the servants except the cook, who is Olivia. He falls in love with her, discovers who she is, and everything ends happily.

The reserved seats are on sale at Robinson's Pharmacy, and are selling fast. Reserved seats are fifty cents. General admission will be thirty-five cents for adults, and twenty-five cents for children.

MILLER WILL JOIN ROLLINS TEAM ON FRENCH BROAD

A canoe regatta of unusual event will appear in Asheville, N. C. in the near future, wherein Girard Miller, a St. Cloud boy, will participate. The crew will be comprised of Rollins College students, Water Park, with Coach Chase heading the team of five. They will enter combat on the beautiful waters of the French Broad river at Asheville, against a well trained Asheville team.

Close Finish Indicated As Tribune's Big Contest Draws to Exciting End

SATURDAY, THE DAY—CANDIDATES CANNOT BANK ON PREVIOUS TOTALS TO WIN—IT'S THE "LAST BIG PUSH" THAT BRINGS VICTORY

THOUSANDS WATCH RACE AT WIND-UP

Saturday night, at 8 p. m., THE ST. CLOUD TRIBUNE'S big Prize Campaign comes officially to a close.

As the last hours of this stupendous drive come in sight the candidates are working with might and main for the highest honors that are to be had. Not only will these luxurious grand prizes be awarded to the best workers, but the fortunate winners will receive the praise and congratulations of all Osceola county.

For weeks the candidates have been busily engaged in accumulating votes and during all this time THE TRIBUNE has gained fame that is widespread. It has been hailed from the first as the most startling prize-giving event ever inaugurated in this section of Florida.

The effort and suspense of weeks will culminate at THE TRIBUNE office this Saturday, when THE TRIBUNE'S great circulation and popularity contest comes to an end. With only three days left, it is small wonder that the candidates are working to the limit to determine whether they are to receive prizes worth hundreds of dollars or prizes worth hundreds of cents.

A SPECTACULAR FINISH

Never has there been in this vicinity such a glittering array of gifts, and never was there such a tremendous battle waged to win them. Present indications point to a hairbreadth finish and while it is certain that the winning votes will run high, it is also just as sure that the grand prizes will be won by very narrow margins.

All candidates should read the final instructions printed in THE TRIBUNE. These explain the manner in which the balloting will be compiled and give certain information valuable to those in the Automobile and Gift Campaign.

Among the names of the campaigners in this issue, one will have more credits than any other candidate, one will win the Grand Capital Prize—that luxurious Chrysler Sedan. The one who stands next highest will be awarded the brand new Ford Runabout—a handsome gift for a few (Continued on Page Two)

REV. LANDISS GOES TO PASTORATE IN PALATKA DIST.

Seldom has it been when the entire population of a city have so profoundly regretted the departure of a couple, as was the case when during the week Rev. Wm. Landiss and Mrs. Landiss left St. Cloud for Welaka, near Palatka, where they will take up a new residence, and where Rev. Landiss will become the minister of several churches in that district. The assignment was made at the recent conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Landiss have made friends on every occasion since their sojourn in St. Cloud over a period of some six or seven years. Rev. Landiss was pastor for a couple of years or so of the Methodist church, but his long and unbroken work in the cause was so outstanding he was granted a rest in June, 1924, when Rev. Dr. Ryndman, who also endeared himself to the people of St. Cloud and who was transferred to a Lexington, Ky., pastorate only recently, was assigned to the St. Cloud pastorate.

During Rev. Landiss' rest, however, he found that he could not remain idle, and in 1925 he was named president of the St. Cloud Chamber of Commerce and when other matters came up where it occurred that the people of the city should put their shoulders to the wheel for a better cause and a greater city, Rev. Landiss appeared among the vanguards.

The Tribune is requested to express a fervent wish for the health, success and happiness of the couple in their new home, and another for their eventual return to St. Cloud where Mr. and Mrs. Landiss have a son and two daughters residing—Mr. Charles Landiss, Mrs. Nina Lee Warrington and Miss Rosemary Landiss, principal of the west side grammar school.

HALF HOLIDAY GOES INTO EFFECT TODAY

The Thursday half-holiday went into effect in St. Cloud today, as a recognition that summer is here and that the houses and the clerks need a little mid-week rest from their daily labors. The drug stores and filling stations will take care of the patrons alternately. Closes in other sections started two weeks ago.

MRS. B. L. DEMMON

MRS. H. F. CATERER

The Tribune is proud of the personnel of its hustling candidates, but regrets having only two cuts available for reproduction today. They are representative, however, of two of St. Cloud's popular young matrons.

Mrs. Demmon (nee Alice Traynor of Michigan) is in the very front quartette of big leaders and will be heard from in the final count.

Mrs. Caterer (nee Margaret Bonham of Ohio) has made a sensational rise in the vote standing the past week and may prove a "dark horse" in the final round Saturday.

MASON TILLER GETS GOLD MEDAL FOR LONG SERVICE

Word has reached here from New York that Mason Tiller, of Kissimmee, has received from a large life insurance company a gold "long service" medal in recognition of his representation of the company in Kissimmee for twenty-five years.

The badge of service was accompanied by a letter from the president of the company, who expressed his appreciation of Mr. Tiller's "record of loyal and faithful service."

RETURNED TO FIND IT SNOWING IN ILLINOIS

There's no place like St. Cloud, says Ellen B. Hodges, who spent a vacation here the past winter, but who has now been at her old home in Aubrey, Ill., for several weeks.

Enclosing her subscription for the St. Cloud Tribune, she also pays a tribute to the home paper here. In so doing she says "I feel that I cannot do without hearing from your dear city once a week, for I just had such good times when I was there, and I have been coming to dear old St. Cloud for 15 winters."

She says it has been snowing ever since her return to Illinois.

HELP YOUR FRIEND

Have you a friend in the campaign you want to see win? You can help him or her today or tomorrow. Only a few more hours and the contest will have been run, a few more jumps of the hour hand—and too late.

The campaign will end at 6:00 p. m., Saturday night, April 28, when the official records of the campaign, including the final reports turned in by candidates at the closing hour, will be turned over to the judges, prominent local citizens whose names appear in the contest advertisement elsewhere. As soon as this audit is finished, candidates will be notified, and the winners will be announced in THE TRIBUNE of May 3rd.

E. R. (ELL) BASS CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF
Osceola County

E. R. Bass, better known to the old-timers as "Ell" Bass, who is making the race in Osceola county for Sheriff needs little introduction, as he has been active in the county for a number of years; and, in fact, he was born and raised in Osceola county, near Kissimmee.

He served as a member of the Osceola County Board of County Commissioners in 1909-10 and did so with credit. He has taken an interest at such times as his time and attention was required in other matters for the betterment and upbuilding of the county.

He states that he is now starting on an intensive campaign which will continue until the primaries are over and appeals to his friends to help him in every way to win.

Tribune Building will close promptly at 8 o'clock p. m., and candidates or others who arrived after that hour will not be admitted.

THANKS TO CANDIDATES

In these closing hours of the campaign THE TRIBUNE desires to express sincere thanks for the earnest endeavors and the many kindnesses the candidates have shown the paper. It has been a real pleasure to work with them in this campaign; all have shown a commendable spirit of good will. Their work has been an accomplishment to be proud of, and we feel that the salesmanship experience gained during these few weeks will be of untold value to the participants for the years to come.

CAMPAIGN A SUCCESS

Considering the slack season, the campaign has been a success, giving THE TRIBUNE a host of new readers and we are satisfied.

CAMPAIGN CONDUCTED FAIRLY

Let it be understood that THE TRIBUNE has spared no pains to insure that the campaign should be conducted with absolute fairness to all. The manager of the campaign, Mr. Hudson De Priest, an experienced editor, a former publisher, and campaign manager of exceptional order, and his general "pater" have worked day and night with one idea in mind—a fair and honest campaign—no "hookum"—no sore spots. Mr. De Priest will be on hand when the contest closes. We doubt if a single candidate could be so bold to believe that he would show favoritism.

The candidates are signing a statement this week voicing their belief in the campaign's fairness and impartiality.

THE TRIBUNE most certainly has no special interest in anyone. They are all our friends and we rejoice with each of the winners, no matter who may receive the capital prizes.

We believe that the campaign has been conducted on the square, if we know what the word implies, and we expect to see that the awards are delivered accordingly. Friendship and good will shall characterize the campaign to the close, and for the months and years to follow. THE TRIBUNE believes that each and every candidate will support us in this policy.

Only a very short time remains to choose between victory and defeat. To the winners—"congratulations"—to those who go down in defeat we can truly say "they fought the good fight."

PROTEST

Mr. Editor,

Dear Sir:—

I wish to protest in regard to tearing down notices put up by the Catholic Society in the Post Office giving notice of the time of service. Catholics don't interfere with any one's religion, and I think that some under the cloak of religion is doing this. Perhaps the ones, that are tearing the notices down, think that Catholics are not one hundred per cent American. Now let's see. My father was born in Pennsylvania of Catholic parents. He fought in the Mexican War; he volunteered in the Civil War and died in service; also one of my brothers. I also enlisted in '61 as a private. I was mustered out in '65 as an officer.

I wish you, people, to understand that I have not dictated this notice as a Catholic, but a Protestant of a friend of mine, that attends the Protestant Church. I believe in charity to all.

THE OFFICIAL MINUTES OF OSCEOLA COUNTY REPUBLICAN MASS CONVENTION

The Osceola County Mass Convention called to order by the chairman of the county committee, C. P. Parker, at the G. A. R. Hall, at 3 p. m., Saturday, April 21, 1928.

The chairman read the notice, calling the meeting, which appeared in the St. Cloud Tribune and in the Kissimmee Valley Gazette.

The first business to come before the convention was the election of a convention chairman and a convention secretary. L. M. Parker was unanimously elected convention chairman and A. M. Bailey was elected convention secretary.

The new chairman took charge of the meeting making a short address.

Motion seconded and carried that chair appoint following committees of three: 1. Resolutions, 2. Credentials, 3. Nominations. Resolutions committee: D. E. Modglin, C. P. Parker and Chas. Robbins. Nominations: F. A. Stroup, J. Pherigo and John Carlin. Credentials: J. H. DeGraw, A. M. Bailey and F. W. Ames. Committees retired to prepare reports.

The convention was addressed by Bascom Waters, of Kissimmee.

The Credentials Committee submitted the following report which was duly adopted by the vote of the meeting: Only two precincts in the county, the fourth and the eleventh, held precinct convention on Saturday, April 14th and the following named delegates held proper credentials from said precincts to hold a county delegated convention. No. 11, A. M. Bailey; No. 4, J. H. DeGraw. Inasmuch as this convention is a mass convention, it was the recommendation of the credentials committee that these two gentlemen be used only to name delegates to the congressional convention at Miami, and that their nomination be adopted and confirmed by the mass convention. Report adopted.

Resolutions committee reported the following:

"Resolved that the Osceola County Mass Convention assembled at St. Cloud, Florida, this 21st day of April, A. D. 1928, recognize that we are presented with an unusual opportunity to establish bipartisan government in Florida with its manifold blessings to the people of our state, that it is a clarion call to all Republicans to put forth such effort as good citizenship duty commands that we may earnestly enlist the support of independent and broad minded Democratic electors toward the establishment of consistently efficient and honest government. That we cordially invite those who seek political relief to join us, urging that they lay aside prejudice basing action on reason for the common good.

2. Resolved that we are thoroughly cognizant of the imperative need of additional protection, particularly for our fruit and vegetable producers of the state, that we pledge our hearty cooperation in their endeavors to secure such adequate tariffs, and that such opportunity shall be afforded them to elect a Republican congressman from this district in 1928, who can and will procure this needed relief. That the policy of a Protective Tariff must be maintained if American standards of living are to endure.

3. Resolved that we applaud the splendid administration of President Coolidge, whose consistent attitude of economy in National Government has commended him to the people of these United States without regard to politics as no other executive. A generation has been, that we would recommend his nomination if he can be persuaded to accept.

4. Resolved that we prededicate our efforts and emphases our unalterable demands for clean, honest government. That we make no defense for wrongdoing, whether it be made by our national cabinet members, our Florida legislators, or our county commissioners, the principal is the same, all detrimental to public welfare.

5. Resolved, that the movement of reconciliation among the Republicans of Florida be warmly supported, that every honorable means be employed to bring about a friendly harmony that will assure teamwork, and to this end, we hereby direct and instruct our delegates to the conventions to use their efforts and influence for the election of the best available member as National committeemen, other than the present incumbent, believing that same will be to the best interests of the party.

Respectfully submitted,

L. E. MODGLIN, Chairman.

J. B. CARLIN, Committee."

Motion to adopt the report of the nominating committee made, seconded and carried unanimously.

H. S. Davis moved that the motion carried to accept the report of the Resolutions committee be rescinded. Motion carried. Mr. Davis then moved that the report of the Resolutions committee be amended by striking out the words in Paragraph 5 of the report "other than the present incumbent" and together with all that part of Paragraph 6 wherein delegates were instructed to work for the nomination of W. C. Lawson for Governor. C. P. Parker asked Mr. Davis to divide his motion with his second's consent into its two component parts in order that the convention could discuss the parts separately. This request was agreed to by Mr. Davis and his second. C. P. Parker of the committee on Resolutions then addressed the convention in defense of the Paragraph 5 of the resolutions as submitted, pointing out its manifest importance to the party in Florida. Mr. Davis addressed the convention pleading that delegates be allowed to go to the conventions uninstructed. Upon vote of the convention the paragraph was allowed to stand as originally submitted.

C. P. Parker of the Resolution Committee, asked the permission of the convention, in order to bring about a harmonious feeling and to avoid any further controversy, and with the consent of the mover and second to the motion to adopt, that Paragraph 6 of the resolutions be cancelled and withdrawn. This was asked with the advice and consent of the other members of the committee on resolutions. This was agreed to by all concerned. Upon motion duly made and seconded the amended report of the resolutions committee was readopted by the convention.

Inspirational addresses were made the convention by H. S. Davis, T. F. H. Pipe and L. E. Modglin, all of which were very enthusiastically heard by the convention.

Moved by C. P. Parker that when the convention adjourned that it be subject to call by the new county committee at some date early after the June Primary. Seconded. Motion ruled out of order by the chair.

There being no further business to come before the convention motion to adjourn was duly made, seconded and carried.

L. M. PARKER,
Chairman of Convention.

A. M. BAILEY,
Secretary of Convention.

RUTH BRYAN OWEN
WILL SPEAK HERE
THURSDAY, MAY 3

specially provided chairs arranged therefor when the well known candidate from Miami makes her appearance at 8 p. m., Thursday, May 3rd.

Mrs. Owens has stated that it is her policy she wishes to discuss and not an attack on an opponent. This she has maintained throughout the campaign to date. Her address will be awaited with interest, and the comfortable seating arrangements that have been provided for by her friends and the city itself are ample and all that could be wished for.

Will Rogers, well known as an international writer, says in the New York Times of this week that Mrs. Owens is another woman who belongs in politics. His message to the Times came from Indianapolis and Will says:

"Say, you know I wrote you the other day about a wonderful woman politician who has since been nominated, Mrs. Ruth McCormick, of Illinois, daughter of Mark Hanna.

"Well, there is a live Democratic woman too, and that's Ruth Bryan Owen, daughter of William Jennings Bryan. She is running for congress in Florida from the Fourth Congressional District, and she is another woman who really belongs in politics, for she was bred to politics. That will be two daughters of two great politicians."

Mrs. Owens makes no reference to her antecedents as a means of winning the nomination she is seeking, however.

LARGE SEARCHLIGHT WILL SHINE ON MIAMI SHRINE

GREATEST CANDLEPOWER IN WORLD WILL TURN SKIES
CONCENTRATION

St. Cloud and Osceola County Shriners who attend the large assembly of the Mystic Shrine at Miami, May 1, 2 and 3 will have the privilege of witnesses the most spectacular displays in lights and colors probably ever shown on any previous occasion.

Those who left here this week to attend the Grand Lodge of the Order of the Order of the Eastern Star were Mrs. H. A. Stephens, Worthy Matron, of St. Cloud Chapter No. 46; Miss Vera Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cowger.

According to reports coming from Miami at press time the immense searchlight will be of 1,400,000,000 candle power, claimed to be the largest searchlight in the world. It will illuminate the Florida skies it is said for miles during the annual convention of the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

Energy for this colossal beacon will be supplied by the Florida Power and Light Company, which has completed elaborate arrangements to make this feature of the large assembly of Shriners one of the major successes of the convention.

Erected on a spacious platform at the end of the Avenue of the Sphinx, in beautiful Bayfront Park, the giant projector will emblazon its high intensity rays in a manner rivaling the famous Aurora Borealis of Arctic skies. Careful observation of the light's strength reveals that the beams completely penetrate the earth's atmospheric strata to be seen by ships far out at sea and in communities throughout this immediate region.

The tremendous amount of energy necessary to illuminate this projector is confined to a small apparatus within the searchlight and heated to a temperature producing a brilliancy as great as that of the sun. In this device a cup of carbon one-half inch in diameter, containing 24 horsepower of electrical energy, fills the cup with a vapor possessing a temperature of 9,000 degrees Fahrenheit. The beams of this aurora are broken up into seven individual beams, through the use of prisms, while directly behind is placed a specially constructed mirror five feet and two inches in diameter to multiply its brilliancy.

The complete apparatus, including the giant projector, its stirrer and incidental equipment, weighs about 10,000 pounds and stands nine feet in height. It requires a free space of 20 feet in diameter for rotating to give the appearance of a vast fan of light alternately opening and closing.

BAILEY WILL TAKE YOUR PRODUCE HE TELLS TRIBUNE

C. A. Bailey, head of Bailey's Grocery, one of St. Cloud's long-established grocery houses, stated to the Tribune this morning that he would be glad to buy sweet potatoes, green peas and other vegetables, either for reselling to local consumers or shipping the same.

This is a splendid idea and will assist the local growers who have not begun producing on a big scale to market and realize on their produce.

THIS YEAR

Every four years, the people of this country are called upon to express their convictions and vote their sentiments as to who should rule over the nation as our president. This is both a great privilege and a responsibility which none should neglect. There is absolutely no reason why any citizen should so far abandon this duty as to allow an election to pass without giving expression to his or her will at the ballot box. Have you regis-

DATES CANDIDATES SHOULD REMEMBER

You must make your first statement of campaign expenses between May 7th and May 11th.
You must make your second statement of expenses between May 24th

You must make your final state-

ARE SUNDAY LAWS CONSTITUTIONAL?

Editor St. Cloud Tribune:

Sunday is a religious institution. Sunday laws are therefore religious laws, and religious laws are contrary to that clause in the constitution of our country which declares "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof."

If this country is great for one reason more than another, it is that its founders stood for the entire separation of religion from the state. They believed religion to be an individual affair with which the state should have nothing to do.

The church is an organized body of people who profess religion.
The state has a special definite work to perform of a civil character. The church was ordained by God to teach religion. The state was ordained by God to protect men in the enjoyment of their civil and religious rights.

It is the right of every individual to worship God, or not to worship Him at all. It is the right of every individual to choose how he shall worship God, or when he shall worship God.

To compel a person to pray who is not a Christian, and who does not believe in christianity, is to make him act the part of a hypocrite, and a hypocrite in God's sight (and in man's sight as well) is worse than an open sinner.

To compel a person to keep Sunday for the Sabbath, when he has no faith in that day as being the Sabbath, is to outrage the conscience; and it is also a plain violation of that clause in our National Constitution which declares, "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion."

Eight large and influential organizations are today asking the Congress of the United States to enact a Sunday law for the District of Columbia in violation of that clause in our National Constitution which states in language that can not be misunderstood, that Congress has nothing to do whatsoever with making and enforcing upon the people religious laws of any sort or kind.

It would be just as consistent to enact and enforce laws requiring all the citizens of our country to be baptized and partake of the Lord's supper, as to enact and enforce laws that all the people shall keep Sunday as a Sabbath.

What a pitiable sight it would be to see the officers in our rural districts and cities arresting their friends and neighbors and dragging them to the courts to be tried, fined and imprisoned, simply because they could not get the consent of their minds to be baptized, unite with the church, and partake of the Lord's supper. Yet it is no uncommon thing to hear of persons being indicted for working on Sunday after having conscientiously observed the seventh day as the Sabbath.

Is this the spirit of brotherly love as expressed by the Saviour in Matthew 7:12 where He says: "All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them; for this is the law and the prophets."

We believe in religion, and in the Christian religion, and in the old fashioned gospel as opposed to the new theology; but we believe in religion as a personal experience, growing out of the free choice and faith of the individual, and not as an affair of the state.
We believe in religious liberty for the other man—the man who differs from us—who we shall try to win, but not to compel.

CHAS. P. WHITFORD, Orlando, Fla.

MIRACLES UPON MIRACLES

The whole world is excited now about the three brave fliers who crossed from Europe, making the first successful east-to-west transatlantic flight. After the sacrifice of several lives, man has made another conquest of the skies.

We are throwing our hats into the air and cheering the pluck of the three flyers, who certainly more than deserve the plaudits that are coming their way.

This event makes us pause to reflect on the miracles that have come to pass practically within our own lives. We think of the advent of the phonograph, the motion picture, the telephone, the telegraph—and remember the famous first words transmitted by that instrument:

"What Hath God Wrought."

Then we recall more recent inventions and discoveries that almost make these miracles seem commonplace.

And so it happened that when three brave flyers landed on Greenly Island in the icy Far North, news of the landing reached the civilized world at once through the use of that marvelous boon to humanity, the radio.

Modern miracles of science have demolished distance. Man has conquered the air and the sea. Just think of what man has done and what man still may do!

But it would be vanity indeed to give ourselves all the credit for these miraculous accomplishments.

We can only repeat the significant words of Morse:

"What Hath God Wrought."

AMERICAN FOREST WEEK

The week of April 22 to April 28 has been set aside this year as American Forest Week.

The purpose of American Forest Week is to stir up the people to the appalling economic waste entailed by our failure to utilize and protect forest land that is not taken over by fields and pastures.

Farmers as well as commercial timberland owners must be alive to the great forestry problems of the nation.

The depredation of our forests presents a tremendous problem.
It deserves the attention of every wide-awake American.

This year fires in National Forests of the East and South have up to the present time shown an increase of 50 per cent over the number during the same period of 1927.

Fire prevention and the suppression of incendiarism are crying needs. Carelessness is responsible for a great many forest fires. They are unwarranted and wasteful.

Such observances as American Forest Week, it is hoped, will have a salutary effect in making the citizenry aware of the grave danger forests are in, under present conditions. The welfare of our National Forests have a direct bearing upon the welfare of the Nation itself.

The forestry problem is a problem for the Nation as a whole, and it is hoped every American citizen will find some way of doing his "bit" for the forests during American Forest Week—and during other weeks as well!

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW

Chauncey M. Depew has passed away, and we are all a little sadder because of his passing. For so long a time was he in the forefront of national affairs, for so long a period was the spotlight of public interest flashed upon him, that America as a whole will find it difficult to adjust itself to life without his presence.

A great intelligence and a great wit, he illuminated the life about him, and made the world a better place to live in because he lived in it.

He lived during the administration of most of our presidents.
He lived during the most marvelous age known to man, of scientific developments, new discoveries, the conquest of the air and the sea.
And he knew Abraham Lincoln—that alone would have endeared him to us, had we known nothing else about him.

In one of his last interviews, he expressed an unbounded love of life. He was always notable for his wisdom in living, and his great care of his mental and physical faculties permitted him a long, rich life. When he died he was almost ninety-four; yet he did not die as an aged, broken man, but as a vital, important personality still in the midst of active work and compelling interest.

The onslaughts of old age never phased this brave soul, who looked forward with the optimism of Robert Browning:

Grow old along with me,

The best is yet to be,

The last of life, for which the first was made!

TRIBUTE PAID SCREEN COMIC BY MINISTERS

Harold Lloyd Honored Because of His Clean Comedies
Presented

While Harold Lloyd was filming
"Speedy," his latest Paramount release which is showing at the Palm theatre Friday and Saturday, two ministers paid a visit to the comedian's studio, or rather, the huge set built in Westwood for the production.

"Before I leave, Mr. Lloyd," said one of them, after he had watched the star for over a half hour cov-erting before the camera. "I want to pay you just one tribute. That is, whenever a Harold Lloyd picture comes to town, mother and our two kiddies are always first in line to put our money through the box office window. There is never a doubt in my mind that your pictures will contain only the cleanest, most wholesome entertainment, and while I have seen a score of your works, I never have misplaced my confidence. It's a great work, son, and I only hope you keep it up."

This statement echoes the sentiment in which Lloyd is held over the entire country. Lloyd's early training was proof enough to him that one does not have to violate the rules of decency to be funny. His works have been a shining example of that belief. Never has the celebrated comedian overstepped or even approached the line of propriety. That's one reason why he draws more persons into the box office of the world than any other player in motion pictures.

"Speedy" is another of the high class brand for which Lloyd is famed.
It has back of it the big idea that will always be found in a Lloyd comedy—unobtrusively, to be sure, but none the less convincing. In his latest work, he demonstrates the power of confidence over all obstacles.

FLAG OF JACKSONVILLE

It is not common for cities to have a flag, official or otherwise, but the Gateway City has one according to the history written by T. Fr. Rick Davis, who not only give a picture of it, but describes it as follows: "Fled white, in the upper left quarter is shown a gateway from which diagonally across the field is projected a green pennon bearing in white letters the word Jacksonville. In the center riding above the pennon is a brilliant red pennant with green foliage. In the lower left quarter the seal of Jacksonville is shown. The flag was designed by C. D. Ackerly and was adopted by the council as the city's official flag, January 15, 1914."

children of the grade schools will be held this year at the city park on the afternoon Friday, May 4th, starting promptly at five o'clock.

The program for the afternoon will consist of an operetta, "Peter Rabbit," the crowning of the May Queen and the May Pole Dance. Elaborate plans have been made and great efforts put forth by the faculty to assure the success of the program. Many beautiful costumes have been prepared which will add much to the attractiveness of the program.

The program will start at five o'clock, and at the close a cafeteria supper will be served by the Parent-Teachers Association, the funds from which will be used by the association for school purposes. There will be for the cafeteria supper.

A CHICKEN DINNER

On Thursday of last week, Mrs. E. M. Holden was hostess to a number of friends at her home on the corner of Ohio Avenue and Sixth street, to Rev. H. N. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell of the Presbyterian church and Rev. William Landis and Mrs. Landis, the latter having recently left to take charge of a Methodist parsonage at Welaka Springs.

A chicken dinner. Think of such a pleasant dinner on this occasion, or we might say such a sitting dinner; but of course preachers are not the only ones who like chicken dinners.

It was a most enjoyable affair and congratulations were ample upon the hosts.

Mr. Landis was on the eve of leaving for his new parsonage, which is near Palatka. The best wishes of the party went with Mr. and Mrs. Landis as they departed, and they have a host of others in the city equally felicitous.

JOLLY CLUB KEEPS ON HONORING BIRTHDAY PARTIES

Although the wind blew furiously and the rain came down in sheets, the Jolly Club met at Mr. and Mrs. James Watson's home to celebrate Mr. Watson's birthday, who was 70 this week, and Mr. Albert Shope, who has lived with the Watsons family for 10 years. Mr. Shope is 66 years old.

The afternoon was spent in telling of other memorable days, some of which were spent in the north. The boys in blue met in a circle and told of war times. But how could one describe it with so many beautiful cakes and pies, salads, pickles, sandwiches and hot coffee? It was truly a delightful occasion.

The following members of the club pleasantly participated in the event: Mr. and Mrs. James Watson, host and hostess; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bricker, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Farrand, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Perkins, Mr. O. A. Stout, Mr. Albert Shope, Mrs. Laura Hale, Mrs. Rosa Griffin, Mrs. Janice Leedy, Mrs. Lotta Nichols, Mrs. Mattie Swallows, Mrs. Mary Perkins, Mrs. Annabel Coy, Miss Hazel Short.

The guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Carrel of Orlando, Mr. Carrel being a brother of Mrs. Watson. All departed expressing their delight over the splendid time they had spent, happy and looking forward to celebrate more birthdays. Who will be the next?—Scribe.

"OLD IRONSIDES" TRULY GREAT MOTION PICTURE

That much overworked adjective "gigantic," may very properly be employed to describe "Old Ironsides," the new Paramount spectacle produced by James Cruze and adapted from Laurence Stallings' original story by Harry Carr and Walter Woods, which plays the Palm theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

It is doubtful if even Mr. Cruze himself realized what a tremendous impression the picture would make upon the minds of the public. It is one of the first real American epics of the silent drama. Other productions have made us see parts of United States history but this, with its hard bitten Yankee tars and countless fighting men, makes one feel the tremendous bravery and courage of our forefathers.

Although "Old Ironsides" is for the most part spectacular and gripping, the love interest is unusually strong. It is contained in a romantic and wholesome story between Esther Ralston and Charles Farrell which stands out like a diamond mounted in a setting of hand-hammered gold.

Aside from the colorful love episodes, there are any number of other scenes done with a sincerity which is seldom seen. One of the most remarkable is the parting of the players at the end when Esther Ralston, Wallace Bory, Charles Farrell and George Godfrey, the four comrades of George Hancock, leave him to continue their journey to the China Seas abroad the brig, "Esther."

Much praise is due all those who participated in the production but the major portion goes to James Cruze, that mighty director who also gave us "The Covered Wagon." Due to his efforts the photoplay has not one lagging moment.

Every man owes some of his time to the advancement of his profession. —Theodore Roosevelt.

MRS. WESTOVER'S UNIQUE BIRTHDAY PARTY

On April 26th Mrs. Wm. Westover entertained at a week-end house party in honor of Rev. Westover's birthday. The house guests were the Misses Sophronia and Beatrice Patten and Mrs. Schneider from St. Petersburg; Miss Susan Baldwin from Washington, D. C.

In the evening cards and "rhook" were enjoyed. The ladies drew dainty violet bouquets and the gentlemen pink rose boutonniers.

The birthday cake contained the usual ring and a pink rose bud was served on each slice of the cake.

Mrs. Schneider drove the "house party" back to the sunshine city early in the week, remaining over Sunday to attend services in St. Luke's Mission. The other invited guests in St. Cloud were old friends and neighbors: Miss Lois Gemmill, Misses Katherine and Elizabeth Chaplin, Mrs. Maynard Reary, Miss Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Widrig, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Geesh, Mr. and Mrs. Conglar, Mrs. Marcella Potts-Rangan, and Miss Hancher.

WILLIAMS-LAEDELIN NUPTIALS

On last Saturday, April 21st, at highnoon, occurred the wedding of Mrs. Emma E. Williams of this city and Mr. Philip Laedelin of Williamsport, Pa. The marriage took place at the bride's home in the presence of about one hundred and fifty friends. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond. The bride attended by Mrs. Katherine Pearce, and preceded by little flower girls, was strewed flowers in her path, joined the groom who was attended by Mr. William Elselstein, then slowly descended the steps to a beautiful arch of bamboo, waxy magnolias, and white oleanders where Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Palmer awaited them. Reverend L. M. Parker officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony. A splendid prayer was made by the Reverend Andrews, the new pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of St. Cloud.

The bride's gown was of silver gray satin, with dainty white hat and pumps to match. She carried a shower bouquet of pink radiance and opella roses and maiden hair fern. The groom wore dark gray.

Mrs. Palmer's gown was of rose beige georgette with panna velvet trimming. She wore a large hat and pumps to match.

Mrs. Pearce was attired in pink lyonselle voile, with pink picture hat and pumps to harmonize. Immediately following the ceremony the guests formed in line under the direction of A. S. McKay, to extend congratulations to the happy couple. The bridal party with the guests then formed a group and were photographed by Chas. C. Pike.

Across the street from the bride's home long tables had been placed under the splendid oaks and loaded with good things to eat, to which the company did ample justice. A magnificent wedding cake, the gift of Mrs. Pearce and Mr. Elselstein, was cut by the bride and generous slices given to each one present.

After the wedding feast short speeches were made by Hon. Judge Oliver of Klemmure; Ex-Mayor Colvin Parker, Rev. Andrews, Rev. Parker, D. L. Smith, president of the Tourist Club; Mr. Masury, Mr. Palmer and others.

Two fine solos were given by Mrs. Dorothy Taylor, "Mate O'Mine," and "My Dear Soul." A duet by Mrs. Z. H. Smith and Mrs. Sewell Benedict was also enjoyed.

Nurse Williams, as she is affectionately known to a host of friends, has resided in St. Cloud for the past eighteen years. Years filled to the brim with service and good deeds. The words of praise showered upon her on this happy occasion, attested in a measure to the high esteem in which she is held.

Mr. Laedelin who spent the past winter in St. Cloud, has won many friends by his kindly, honest ways and genial manner. The greater part of his life has been spent in the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad, from which service he has retired.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were on display in the living room, which, with the other rooms, was fairly ablaze with gorgeous blooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Laedelin will make their home in St. Cloud.

Smashing Wind-Up Drive for Prize Winning Votes Under Full Headway Candidates Round Up Record Business as TRIBUNE Territory is Covered

With every indication that they will accumulate truly astonishing vote totals before 8 o'clock Saturday night ends the campaign, candidates are swinging into the final three days of the vote race in amazingly vigorous fashion. Lined up in their support are their various communities, neighborhoods, firms, social and other groups, assisting in rounding up the vote-valuable subscriptions and tickets. With men and women everywhere in THE TRIBUNE territory awake to the realization that if they wish their favorite candidate to win, they must act NOW, business is becoming so plentiful that one of the chief concerns of candidates is finding time enough to round it all up. Important Final Instructions to All Candidates

As a matter of caution and to guard against the possibility of loss by candidates through misunderstanding during the final days of the campaign, official instructions are herewith published and should be observed. All candidates should read and weigh every line carefully.

In order to maintain the strictest secrecy as to the number of votes and the amount of collections turned in by each candidate during the last period of THE ST. CLOUD'S Big Automobile and Grand Prize Campaign, the race will be brought to a close under a SEALED BALLOT BOX. The last count of votes by the Campaign Manager was made yesterday and appears on this page. This will be the last publication of votes before the judges' count next Saturday night, April 28th at 8 p. m.

On Saturday the candidates may themselves deposit their final collections in the Sealed Box—located in THE TRIBUNE Campaign Office. By so doing, no one, not even the Campaign Manager, nor the Publishers, can possibly know the final voting strength of the different candidates, which precludes any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest detail. Locked and sealed, the ballot box will be placed in the campaign office Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and will remain there until Saturday at the closing hour, 8 p. m., when it will be taken in hand by the judges for the final count.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

All subscription the last day should, if possible, be accompanied by Cash, Money Order, Cashier's Check or Certified Check for the full amount to cover. Personal checks up to $25 are acceptable, provided no two checks are signed by the same party. Personal or corporation checks above this amount if approved by the campaign manager, will be accepted, subject to proper clearance before the awarding of the prizes.

Candidates during the last two days of the campaign should, if possible, have all checks made out to them personally, and cash same and deposit the money in the box.

The campaign will end at 8 p. m., Saturday night, April 28th, and the count of votes to decide the winners of the different prizes will be made at once.

When the time for the final count arrives the judges will unlock and break the seals on the ballot box and immediately thereafter, or as soon as the votes can be issued on the business therein, the last count of votes will be made and the winners decided. The winners will be determined by merely adding the credits contained in the ballot box to the last count of votes published in the Tribune today. It is calculated that it will require some time, however, to canvass the findings in the box and determine the winners. The official result will be announced at The Palm Theatre Saturday night and will be published in next week's Tribune.

THE JUDGES

G. C. HUNTER,
President, Citizens Bank
PROF. H. F. ZETROUER,
Principal, High School

HOWARD S. DAWLEY,
Mayor of St. Cloud
FRED B. KENNEY,
Former Cashier, Peoples Bank

ALLISON T. FRENCH
Proprietor of Palm Theatre

The above gentlemen, who have been appointed to act as the committee of judges in counting the votes and awarding the prizes, are all well-known business men, and will have no interest in the campaign, other than to see that every vote is counted as cast.

FINAL INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

The proper way to deposit your final subscriptions in the ballot box is as follows: First, list all your stubs on the report sheets and be sure that all names and addresses are clearly and accurately written. Be sure, also, to mark correctly whether the subscriptions are old or new, and attach a slip showing total amount of money enclosed. Bring or send your stubs, report sheets and ballots in an envelope or envelopes, enclosing sufficient money to pay for the subscriptions. Write your name on the outside of the envelope, seal it and deliver to the Campaign Manager, who will issue you a receipt to cover.

Where subscriptions are mailed for the final report, and to ensure that such envelopes will not go astray, they should be sent special delivery and addressed, "Hudson DePriest, Campaign Director, THE ST. CLOUD TRIBUNE, St. Cloud, Florida."

All subscriptions must be in the ballot box by 8 p. m., April 28.

No turn-ins will be accepted for vote credits unless they are in the ballot box by that time.

Under no condition will votes be transferred from one candidate to another. This is an absolute rule and will be strictly enforced.

ABSOLUTELY NO SUBSCRIPTION MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED

Only bona fide subscriptions will be accepted. No sums of money will be accepted, the names of subscribers to be supplied later. Every subscription must be written, either on a stub or a plain sheet of paper, properly filled out with the correct name and address of subscriber and correct amount of money.

All candidates must call at Campaign Headquarters not later than Friday night, April 27, for the purpose of verifying and "O K'ing" the Campaign Manager's record of their votes and total amount of money turned in up to and including April 27. Failure of any candidate to do this will be regarded as automatically verifying the Campaign Manager's records.

HOW PRIZES ARE AWARDED

The candidate polling the highest number of votes will win the Chrysler 2-Door Sedan. The other car and grand prizes, as advertised, will be awarded according to respective vote standings, under the rules and regulations as officially announced.

Any candidate who remained active throughout the campaign and complied with the rules, and fails to win a prize, will be awarded 20 per cent commission on all subscriptions turned in. (No commissions paid on advertising cards.)

A VETERAN OF MANY WARS DIES IN OLD SOLDIERS HOME

CAPT. WATSON WAS UNDER FIRE MORE THAN 200 TIMES—WOUNDED ONCE

Capt. George Miles Watson, although born on Christmas Eve in New York City and of Quaker parents, was buried in Arlington National Cemetery last week after a most romantic career as a soldier of fortune. Capt. Watson, who died of heart disease at the Soldiers' Home at Marion, Ind., was a member of the Portsmouth (Va.) Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was buried with the full V. F. W. ritual, conducted by Lieut. Joseph F. Peattie, District of Columbia Department Commander, V. F. W., and A. B. Hill, Department Commander of Virginia.

Watson had finished high school at the age of 18 when he slipped away from New York for the Southwest. Arriving in New Orleans, he shipped on a fruit boat destined for South America. On this voyage he met up with one of the leaders of the revolutionary party in Honduras. He was offered and accepted a commission as Major and Quartermaster of the revolution. He soon rose to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. After the revolution he was commissioned a Colonel by the new President of Honduras and became part of the government.

His romantic spirit again manifested itself and he enlisted in Troop B, 7th U. S. Cav., on April 9, 1899. During the Indian campaigns with this regiment Watson received his first and only wound, although he was under shell fire more than 200 times in his career.

After the bullet wound in his hip had healed he resided in Co. B, 18th Inf., in which he served until Dec. 6, 1895. "Things became rather quiet in America, so young Watson sailed again for South America, this time to join the revolutionary army of Guatemala, and was placed in command of a squadron of cavalry. The revolution was short lived and Watson and his countrymen barely escaped to the Honduras border.

He was met with a great deal of acclivity by his comrades in arms in Honduras, recommended a Colonel, and accompanied Gen. Perez to Paris on a military mission. However, the Perez government was overthrown and Watson returned to the United States.

At the outbreak of the Spanish-American War he was commissioned a Captain in the 20th Regt. Inf., on April 30, 1898, and served under Gen. Fred Funston during that war and in the Philippine Islands. He returned to the United States and was mustered out on October 28th, 1899. Within a few months he was on his way to South Africa as a member of a Canadian regiment in the Boer war. From Africa he went to England and then joined the revolutionary party in Colombia, South America, after which he returned to the United States and became a Corporal in Co. F, 12th Inf., on December 18, 1901, and served in the Philippine Insurrection until February 17, 1904, when he re-enlisted as a Corporal in Co. A, Signal Corps, remaining with that unit until March 11, 1907. He later became a First Lieutenant in the 5th Georgia National Guard, and in the World War was commissioned a Captain in the Quartermaster Corps. He was discharged with the rank of Captain Jan. 26, 1919. He settled in Virginia and became a member of Portsmouth Post. Sometime last September he went to the Soldiers' Home at Marion, Ind., where he died.—National Tribune.

BIG CROWDS CHEER MARTIN ON IN HIS S. FLA. CAMPAIGN

GOVERNOR HITS STRAIGHT TO POINT, WINNING HOSTS OF VOTES

SEBING, Fla., April 26.—Around the region of the Everglades, whose recent financing will stand out as a high light in the history of Florida, Governor John W. Martin has been making his campaign for the United States Senate during the past week. Coming here from Oklawaha Wednesday, the governor will continue on towards Tampa, planning to speak in Wauchula Saturday night.

"Not only did my opponent run away from his only chance to help the Everglades get federal aid through the Mississippi flood control bill, but he has repeatedly knocked Everglades drainage and my financing measure in north Florida counties, trying to stir up opposition in that part of the state," the governor declared in speeches in Oklawaha, in Lake Worth Wednesday afternoon, and before an open air crowd in the large municipal park in West Palm Beach Tuesday night.

"When the people in this section asked Senator Trammell to get them some help in fighting the unusual fires of the Everglades, he replied that they could only get by having the governor and the drainage board ask the government for it. That's the kind of representation Florida is having in the United States Senate. He can remember all the names of every Florida baby for twelve years, but he can't remember the promise of government aid for Florida twelve days."

From now on the governor will spend most of his time in the large counties, having finished most of the small ones.

NOTED ORGANIZER WARNS AGAINST BIG DRIVES

SUPPORT FOR CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS SHOULD COME VOLUNTARILY TO BE ENDURING SAYS BROWN

In a recent plain talk to the Board of Governors of the Tampa Board of Trade, Colvin P. Brown, head of the organization service department of the United States Board of Trade said it was his opinion that a mistake would occur through any intensive membership drive to raise money for "carrying on." Support for the organization to be enduring must come from those who are assuredly interested, he said.

Mr. Brown advised adoption of a budget plan wherein citizens would be asked to subscribe what they think proper to meet the budget. There should be no public drive, no emotional appeal, with big dinner and speeches, he said.

"In every city there are only so many men who can be depended upon for support and income. You can put on a drive and double your membership, but you cannot hold the added number of members you get in such a drive. You have here in Tampa a certain fixed number who will stick," he said.

Makes Delinquents

"The moment you sign up a man outside of that class, you have signed up a potential delinquent. When you create a delinquent you create a critic, who will justify his lack of support by criticizing the board of trade. He'll tell his friends that it is being run by a clique."

"We have found that many cities in the United States have made mistakes in measuring support by membership. Many have overbuilt. In a drive the public is often led to believe many impossible things will be accomplished, and disappointment and criticism follow. Just keep the hand of welcome out, but don't make it an emotional drive."

Reduction of dues in an effort to get more members have proved disastrous, Mr. Brown said. Reports received from many boards of trade which tried it showed it resulted in a decrease in income, while an increase in membership dues have increased income, and have sometimes increased the number of members.

Should Have $100,000

A city the size of Tampa should have a board of trade income of about $100,000, figures show. Last year the Tampa Board of Trade received between $35,000 and $40,000 in dues, exclusive of the amount received from the city and county. It has 1500 members.

"VANDAL INSTINCT"

That is what the St. Augustine Record calls the habit some people have of carrying home big bunches of wild flowers and making little or no use of them. Not only are the flowers plucked but the whole plant is often pulled up by the roots. Continue this sort of vandalism and it means the extermination of wild flowers. Cut off the flowers but leave the plant.

NEGRO FISHING ON JOB BRINGS NEW ROAD BOSS

ROAD LABORER UNWITTINGLY GIVES SELF AND EMPLOYER AWAY IN CHAT WITH DR. HATHAWAY

Dr. Foss A. Hathaway, chairman of the state road department and gubernatorial candidate, likes to take the day off and go fishing as well as anybody, but he doesn't believe in mixing pleasure with business.

The Florida road builder emphasized this point recently, and in a unique manner.

He was making a tour of a certain section, inspecting a new highway. It ran adjacent fish-infested lakes and streams. And on this particular day they were biting as every fisherman wants them to.

Beside a near-by stream sat a negro man. He was fishing. Several big ones strained at the string line.

Dr. Hathaway approached. He commented on it being good fishing weather and asked if the fisherman was having any luck.

"Yes, sah!" he replied. "I've caught several."

"That's fine," replied the state road department chairman. "Where do you work?"

"Who, me?" the darkey replied. "I've worked on de road for de state."

"Yo, do!" was Dr. Hathaway's remark. "How long have you worked on the road?"

The negro said he'd been employed several weeks.

"Where's your boss?" Dr. Hathaway wanted to know.

"He's up de road there somewhere," the negro said, pulling in a wide-mouthed bass.

Dr. Hathaway departed, and the negro road laborer never knew he was talking to the chairman of the state road department.

Dr. Hathaway proceeded to Tallahassee. The next day a new road boss was on the job and fishing during business hours was prohibited.

EVERYONE AN ALADDIN

According to Herbert Folkel of the St. Augustine Record: "Everyone knows the story from the Thousand and One Nights that tells of how Aladdin by the rubbing of a magic lamp, could summon a slave to do whatever he wished. But everyone does not appreciate that each of us has an even more powerful slave which we can call by merely pressing a button, or throwing a switch—electricity."

"We live in a world of mechanical giant, superior to the gods of the old myths. Electricity, gas, radio, the telephone, numerous labor-saving devices—all these make the deeds of Zeus and Thor pale into insignificance. Our slaves are numberless and they have none of the human frailties. The great Pharaohs had fleet runners to carry their messages—today, John Smith has a means of communication that excels the energy and efficiency of a million such runners. The parallel could be carried much further."

"Let no one envy the monarchs of antiquity. The wonders of the twentieth century may seem prosaic, but nothing in the past, either fact or fiction, can match them."

There are ten different breeds of hens in the national egg-laying contest at Chipley, with White Leghorns in the lead as producers.

A MELBOURNE BOY FINDS EFFECTS OF BROOKS

TAKEN FROM BEACH NOT FAR FROM WHERE IT WAS THOUGHT HE FELL

Some of the personal effects of Harry Brooks, defunct Ford aviator who went down in the Atlantic off Melbourne Beach, have been found by Don Bequjean of Melbourne.

The effects had washed ashore and were discovered by the young man as he was passing along the ocean front. Brooks plunged into the ocean February 27, and no definite knowledge of the aviator has been brought to actual light since—until the Melbourne boy found a check book of Brooks' owned to the aviator by the First State Savings Bank of Birmingham, Mich., and a billfold which contained a birds' nest drawing of an airplane, two years chauffeur's license for the state of Michigan, several receipts and a communication from the St. Cloud Metal Airplane division of the Ford Motor Company. These had washed upon the beach about two miles from where it was believed Brooks went down against an adverse wind.
